Israelle (Izzy) Nelson

Israelle (Izzy) Nelson is a purpose-driven business professional with over a decade of experience spanning healthcare, automotive, retail, nonprofit, tech, and banking. Throughout her diverse career, she has built a reputation for blending strategic thinking with compassion, delivering impact across roles in customer support, finance, and operations while remaining deeply grounded in service to others. Currently, Izzy works in customer support for a tech company, where she acts as the vital link between users and the organization. Nelson holds a Master of Business Administration with a specialization in Leadership from the University of Toledo. This academic foundation, combined with hands-on experience, equips Izzy with the ability to make informed, people-centered decisions in complex business environments. She believes leadership is about service, vision, and continuous learning—and she embodies that belief in every project she leads and team she supports.
